

NARRATOR: (without music) Three years of ministry had passed. The reputation of this teacher, healer, and miracle worker preceded Him wherever He went. Approaching Jerusalem during His final days, Jesus was honored as King. Pressing around Him, a large crowd called out, "Hosanna! Hosanna to the Son of David!" And as they chanted, the words of the psalmist were fulfilled before their eyes: (music begins)

SCRIPTURE VOICE: Lift up your heads, O you gates that the King of Glory may come in
Who is this King of Glory? The Lord Almighty... He is the King of Glory! (Ps. 24:7,10)

NARRATOR: (without music) As we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus, we are reminded that His triumph cannot be separated from His atoning work on the cross. Only a pure and sinless substitute would suffice, and so, the King became a lamb... (music begins) the holy Lamb of God.

SCRIPTURE VOICE: In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace. (Eph. 1:7) We who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ. (Eph. 2:13) Worthy, worthy is the Lamb.
