

No One Ever Cared for Me Like Jesus

Sometimes we try to find meaning apart from the Lord. We attempt to define our lives without Him and end up without significance or security. We feel inadequate and unloved.

The wife of a traveling evangelist, Charles Weigle, found herself emotionally unable to accept his call to the ministry. She needed counsel, and they both needed help to evaluate the priorities of their marriage. Unfortunately, she took matters into her own hands and together with her little daughter, left her husband. In a farewell note she wrote, "Charlie, I've been a fool. I've done without a lot of things long enough. From here on out, I'm getting all I can of what the world owes me. I know you'll continue to be a fool for Jesus, but for me it's good-bye!"

The bottom dropped out for Charles, for he loved his wife very much. A reconciliation was attempted, but to no avail. Less than five years later, the wife died under heart-breaking and tragic circumstances. Weigle was left with a hurt that went very deep. But during the healing process the Lord gave him a song that would profoundly touch the hearts of many people.
