Narration continues*

His arrival was noticed by wealthy and poor alike though
He would grow up in relative obscurity.*

*You may not have noticed Him had you passed Him on the street.
But He astounded the experts with His insight.*

He grew in wisdom and stature.

*He fed the poor . . . healed the sick . . . touched the untouchable . . .
taught the experts . . . noticed the outcasts . . . forgave the criminal . . .
One life turned the world upside-down.*

*Betrayed by His own people . . . beaten and bruised . . .
 sentenced as a common criminal . . . and falsely accused.
 Finally killed in the most painful way imaginable . . .
 He breathed His last breath . . . a breath of mercy for His killers.
 And while the one life had mattered . . . it was finished . . .

... all was lost ...

Narration continues*

29

BUT THEN on the third day . . .*

Love pierced through the darkness and against all hope the Savior of the World AROSE!

Crushing sin and death with glorious victory . . .
throwing back the curse of sin and conquering the grave.
Jesus the Christ had RISEN!

31

33

35

*Hallelujah! He is risen indeed! Today we join with believers around the world to celebrate the hope and promise found in our risen Savior!

Let's sing as one, praise the the Risen King!
