NARRATOR: Christmas . . . the season of hope, and the story of our redemption! Even though centuries have passed since a radiant star first pointed the way to a makeshift sanctuary in Bethlehem, the celebration of Christmas continues to capture the hearts of believers around the world. Each year, the familiar refrain of Luke's second chapter once again evokes images of angels and shepherds, and kings bearing gifts.

Yet even as our traditions continue to evolve, the one constant that remains is the Reason for the season —   (music begins to "Wonderful Counselor") — the Father's one and only Son, God incarnate, the Great I AM, wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.

Long before the angel of the Lord disrupted the still of a shepherd's night with the announcement of a Savior, God was already preparing the hearts of a people living in darkness. Help was on the way . . . a Redeemer would come.
