✠ Responsive Reading: Psalm 46:1-5, 10-11
1 God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea,
3 though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging.
4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy place where the Most High dwells.
5 God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day.
10 He says, "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth."
11 The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

🎵 Scripture Reading:

Phl 2: 22 But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father he has served with me in the work of the gospel.

🎵 Sermon: Freedom

---Pastor Hsu

Because of COVID-19, which affects life, work, school, emotions and people, we all look forward to peace and freedom.

I. The blessing of freedom:

1. Joy to the sorrowful: v. 13,25

No more joy, no more singing, no more feasting because of the captivity of sin.

God leads the people to return, and sorrow becomes joy, and sorrow becomes joy and satisfaction!

2. Strength for the weary: v.25,22

God lifts up the weary, the woman defends the man, and the weary are strengthened!

3. Sanctification of the polluted: v.40,34

The streams of water, the places where bodies were thrown down, the places where idols were worshiped,
are now holy to God!

Those who have sinned and done evil and turned away from God are now forgiven by God and are not remembered by God, but are holy!

4. Reward for those who serve: v.16

Is there hope for the future? God promises us that there will be a reward for our works, and we will see the goodness of God in the land of the living; we will see the effect of our labor (Ps 27:13, Isa 53:11).

II. The Key to Freedom - Experiencing Love:

v.3,20,36

The key to freedom is the love of God!

Even though we are weak, God loves us with an everlasting love, and it is never too late to repent!
Even when we are punished by God, we must still believe that God still cares for us!

The sun and the moon shine and the sea is silent to guarantee that God's love for us will never change!

The only antidote to fear is love, and there is no fear in love (1 John 4:18, Dan. 10:19).

III. The Way to Freedom.

1. New Testament Heart Covenant: v.31,33

The old covenant was written in the Mosaic version of the law, and man kept it outwardly, but inwardly he rebelled and resisted proudly.

The new covenant is written on our hearts, where we obey God from the inside, long for Him, serve Him, and get rid of our hearts of stone and replace them with hearts of flesh (Ezek. 11:19)!

Faith goes from an external form to experiencing "my God" in person!

2. Pleading: v.9

God guides us according to our petitions! God has the sovereignty to do wonderful things, but God loves to do great things through our prayers so that we can participate in His wonderful plan of salvation, and we can work with God and be glorified together!

3. Setting up signposts: v.21

Set up signposts and guideposts to record the paths taken and to keep an eye on God's ways.

1) Remember the grace of the wilderness: v.2

We need to remember how we were blessed in the wilderness, how we experienced God's mercy and protection when we were at our most needy, helpless and weak, and rise up to count the grace of the Lord!

2) Watchmen: v.6

God will raise up watchmen to understand God's heart, to go before the flock, and to guide the sheep in the right way!

God raises us up to be signposts to show people the glory of serving the Lord!

Abel taught us sacrifice, Noah taught us holiness, Abraham taught us to bring back the dead, David taught us courage and righteousness, and Daniel taught us to exalt the Lord.

Today God has raised you and me up to be a signpost; children are obedient, students are clean and polite, workers are happy and helpful, mothers are graceful and beautiful, elders are healthy and happy; professionals are witnessing to serve the Lord! Do you want to be the signpost that this generation desires to see?
