🔗 Scripture Reading: John 4:7–10

7 A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, “Please give me a drink.”

8 (His disciples had gone into town to buy food.)

9 The Samaritan woman said to Him, “You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?” For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.”

Sermon: A Turnaround — A Life Transformed

- Pastor Dong

Q1: Why did Jesus take the initiative to speak with this Samaritan woman?

Q2: What kind of person was this Samaritan woman?

Q3: After she came to know and believe in Jesus, what kind of person was she transformed into?

Q4: What was the key to this transformation?

Key:

She sincerely talked with Jesus—she asked questions, she listened, she engaged with Him.

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.”

Jesus loves you!

He knows you, He understands you, He cares about you!

Q5: Are you willing to come to Jesus with a humble heart, a pure heart, a hungry and thirsty heart—to know Him, repent, confess your sins, believe in Him, and receive salvation, the kingdom of God, the vision of God, and a completely transformed life?
