☞ Scripture Reading: Jeremiah 4:1-4

1 “If you, Israel, will return, then return to me,” declares the Lord. “If you put your detestable idols out of my sight and no longer go astray,
2 and if in a truthful, just and righteous way you swear, ‘As surely as the Lord lives,’ then the nations will invoke blessings by him and in him they will boast.”

3 This is what the Lord says to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem: “Break up your unplowed ground and do not sow among thorns.

4 Circumcise yourselves to the Lord, circumcise your hearts, you people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or my wrath will flare up and burn like fire because of the evil you have done— burn with no one to quench it.

☞ Sermon: “Blessings from Heaven” ~ Pastor Dong

Jeremiah 4:1–4 clearly shows how deeply God loves His people. If His people repent and return to Him, they will turn away from punishment and curses, and God will grant them five great blessings.

The Key Question:

What is true repentance?

What kind of repentance does the Bible reveal?

Idols — Jeremiah 4:1

Idols are anything that replaces God:

- The deepest love of the heart
- The greatest source of reliance in life

God delights in giving these five blessings from Jeremiah to His people. To receive them:

- 1. Become God’s children — Gospel of John 1:12
- 2. Repent and return to God — Jeremiah 4:1–4

True repentance brings five great blessings.

I. Blessing 1: An Eternal Home and a Pure Heart (Jeremiah 4:1)

“Return to Me” means: No crisis or power can take away your home or your heart. You gain lasting security and inner purity.

John 16:33 “I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.”

II. Blessing 2: All-Round Peace (Jeremiah 4:1; John 16:33)

“You will not be uprooted” — complete stability. Both inwardly and outwardly, you live in peace.

Peace means: Harmony, Reconciliation, Well-being, Health, Blessing

III. Blessing 3: Excellent Character and Integrity (Jeremiah 4:2)

You live continually with high moral standards and noble character.

Live in goodness, live out goodness, and continually transform everything that is not good into goodness.

Luke 15:10 In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

IV. Blessing 4: Leading Others to God — Becoming a Blessing to the World (Jeremiah 4:2; Luke 15:10)

Sharing the gospel brings the highest joy: A joy beyond imagination—gladness, happiness, and fulfillment.

V. Blessing 5: Receiving God’s Warnings (Jeremiah 4:4)

Receiving warning is a great blessing. It enables us to see the edge of falling and the terror of judgment, causing us to live in reverent fear and alertness, so that we do not lose God’s blessings and do not fall into a bottomless abyss of eternal destruction.

There is only one key to receiving all these blessings: return to God—that is, repent and turn back to Him.

How wide and great is God’s mercy and love!

Jeremiah 4:1 “If you, Israel, will return, then return to me,” declares the Lord. “If you put your detestable idols out of my sight and no longer go astray,

After we believe in the Lord, the Holy Spirit will move within us, reminding and warning us.

If we obey the Holy Spirit and repent at all times, if we obey the Holy Spirit and honor God in everything, then we will enjoy the blessings God gives us forever.

May God bless you with joy in the New Year and success in all you do!”
