🎵Scripture Reading: Philippians 1:25, 4:4, 6, 2:2

Philippians 1:25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith.

Philippians 4:4, 6 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

Philippians 2:2 Then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind.

Wherever I go, what kind of influence, atmosphere, and change do I bring?

I. Joy Is a Gift from God

Luke 10:21 At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.

1Thessalonians 1:6 You became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you welcomed the message in the midst of severe suffering with the joy given by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 5:3-5 Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance;

4 perseverance, character; and character, hope.

5 And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

1Peter 1:8 Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy,

1. Joy Overwhelms Suffering (Luke 10:21; 1Thessalonians 1:6; Romans 5:3-5; 1Peter 1:8)

When Jesus faced difficulties in His ministry, He was filled with joy by the Holy Spirit and saw the Father's good will.

When we go through great trials, we must receive the joy given by the Holy Spirit.

Even in suffering, we can rejoice, because the Holy Spirit pours God's love into our hearts.

When we face trials, by believing in Jesus, we receive glorious and overflowing joy.

The greater the storms of suffering, the deeper the current of joy.

2. Joy Is the Mark of the Kingdom of God (Romans 14:17)

Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit,

The kingdom of God is not about eating, drinking, or regulations, but about joy in the Holy Spirit.

3. Joy Is the Fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22)

Galatians 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,

Earthly happiness comes from possessions, and sorrow comes when they are lost.

Heavenly joy comes from having Jesus and is never lost.

Joy is the fruit of the Holy Spirit, who gives us joy, God's love, comfort, and hope.

II. Joy Is a Gift I Give to Others

1. Sharing the Truth (Philippians 1:25)

Philippians 1:25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith,

We grow and rejoice in the faith. Only by understanding God's heart through truth can we have true joy.

We must know the truth and speak the truth to share joy and speak blessings.

Why do blessings slip away from our mouths? Because we lack wisdom.

Why do we lack wisdom? Because we lack truth. We must read the Bible every day!

Philippians 1:4; 4:4, 6 In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy

4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

2. Praying for Others (Philippians 1:4; 4:4, 6)

Paul often prayed for everyone, and he prayed with joy.

How can we be joyful? Do not worry about anything. Learn to pray and give thanks, telling God everything, and you will receive abundant joy. The Lord carries our burdens.

Keep people in your heart and join prayer meetings.

Philippians 2:2, 25–28 Then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind.

25 But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs.

26 For he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill.

27 Indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow.

28 Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety.

3. Unity and Love (Philippians 2:2, 25–28)

We must be united in thought, love, and emotion, receiving Christ's encouragement, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, and God's comfort, and loving others more actively.

Stay away from disputes, factions, complaints, and arguments, and you will receive complete joy.

Follow the example of Epaphroditus and become a joyful giver who brings joy to Paul and the church.

Mocking others brings entertainment; honoring others brings joy.

Legacy is not what you leave in the world, but what you leave in people's hearts.
